

The Office of Multicultural Student Affairs presents...

The Women Empowered (WE) Program, an exciting new initiative, is calling all undergraduates who identify as women of color to engage in social activities, activism and self-discovery.

Four Tenets: See below how valuable you will be to this initiative ...

- Edifice: Build relationships with women from diverse ethnic backgrounds.
- Empowerment: Identify and address issues that impact women of color.
- Collectivity: Know the available resources.
- Affirmation: Receive support and encouragement!

Monthly Connections

Workshops focused on the experiences of women of color

Anthropological Excursions

Social outings, service projects, and cultural exploration

RAP Sessions

Quarterly academic and personal success meetings

End of the Year Event

“Pass the torch” to next year's cohort!

While many events will be open to ALL DePaul women of color, this pilot-year can only accommodate 15 participants.

Guiding Principles:

How do we realize the four tenets of the Women Empowered (WE) program?

Knowing: Be aware of and utilize university resources

Being: Explore the lived and shared experiences of women of color

Doing: Apply lessons learned to positively affect the lives of others
